

NW Arkansas Metal Fabrication Business Available

Loyal customers| Convenient Location | Enjoyable Work

NW Arkansas Metal Fabrication Business available for purchase. Seller is ready to retire and train a new owner to take over his long list of regular customers. A new owner will have vast amounts of opportunity to start marketing, create a website and network with key customers, grow the business, all while adding additional income and sales opportunities.

As a former employee for leading local fabrication shops, the current owner acquired this business over 20 years ago. Customers know they can rely on precision and expert service in a timely manner. A new owner will have a foundation already built of repeat customers, excellent equipment and a business name known throughout the NW Arkansas region and beyond. The growth potential and opportunities will rely on a new owner and their desire to grow this business to full potential.

This business has a great history of success with decades of experience backing their reputation. Yet, it's retirement time for the current owner and the perfect opportunity for you. All the equipment is included in this deal and the time to buy is now!
